FOREWORD

THIS has been a year of depression; for many students it has been a year of deep discouragement. Yet, undismayed by the difficulty of the task, West Virginia University—her students and her faculty—have "carried on," and progress has been made.

It is the hope of the editors that the student body will feel that this volume of the Monticola measures up to the high standard of achievement that has been set.

May this book serve to remind you, in future years, of the friends, the tasks, the pleasure you now enjoy.

DEDIC

This Book is Respectfully
Dedicated to
MR. GEORGE W. BOWERS
Mannington, W. Va.

ATION

GEORGE W. BOWERS, to whom this book is dedicated, was born in Wheeling, W. Va., September 6th, 1878, son of Frank W. Bowers and Margaret B. Bowers, both natives of Wheeling, W. Va.

Married Sara George of Wellsburg, W. Va., daughter of Samuel and Eliza George. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers have three daughters, Sara Margaret, Frances and Martha.

Graduating from the Wheeling Schools at the age of fifteen, he entered the employ of the Wheeling Pottery Company. For a period of ten years he was associated with this company, resigning at the age of twenty-five to establish his own pottery company in Mannington, W. Va. Since its incorporation, Bowers Pottery Company has grown to be one of the largest manufacturers of Plumbers' Earthenware in this country.

Mr. Bowers is also connected in an official capacity with factories manufacturing vitrified hotel and table china, window glass and paper, and is an officer and director in several financial institutions. He has always taken an active part in public affairs. Beginning at the age of twenty-two with his nomination as a member of the Council of Wheeling, W. Va. He has served the people of his commuity and State in many ways, among which might be mentioned: President of the Board of Education, Mannington, W. Va., Chairman of Local Board No. 2, Marion County, during the World War, and Member of West Virginia State Senate from the Eleventh Senatorial District, consisting of Marion, Monogalia and Taylor Counties. While in the Senate, he assisted in securing appropriations which resulted in the erection of some of the modern buildings now in use at the West Virginia University. He was many years President of the Mannington Kiwanis Club. He is President of the Board of Trustees of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mannington, W. Va., Past president of the West Virginia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, through which Society he has for several years been presenting Good Citizenship Medals to pupils in many High Schools throughout the State. He is much interested in the advancement of educational work.

His hobby is book collecting. Interested in books from childhood, which interest has grown with the years, Mr. Bowers has a well-selected library, which numbers more than 7,000 volumes.

Active in many lines of endeavor Mr. Bowers may be well termed one of West Virginia's leading citizens.

In Memoriam

Russel Love Morris, professor in the Engineering School of West Virginia University since 1895, was loved by the students as well as his fellow-members of the faculty. He not only served the school to the best of his ability, but also his city and his state. His work and his name will long be remembered by those who knew him.

CAMPUS

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. John Roscoe Turner, in his four years as president of West Virginia University, has ably demonstrated his capacities as a competent and popular administrative leader. Under his guidance the University has evinced a steady and significant development comparable to the larger and more advanced institutions of the East.

Dr. Turner has witnessed the gradual realization of his domnant policy, that of "building the University into the life of the state," and has the hearty approval and cooperation of the student body in the furtherance of his program.

The Monticola congratulates and commends Dr. Turner for his past accomplishments and looks forward to his future achievements.

SOPHOMORE

Sophomore Class History

OFFICERS OF THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

President ..... WILLIAM KLUG

Vice President ..... HARRY WEBB

Secretary ..... NELL HALLER

Treasurer ..... THEODORA ERD

On the evening of Tuesday, September 18th, 1930, 754 meek, frightened and collegiate looking freshmen met in the Chemistry Building to organize, establish and plan the destinies of the West Virginia University Class of 1934.

Resolutions were silently expressed, sworn to without spoken word, to poison, mutilate, humiliate and make uncomfortable all Sophomores, to snub, high hat, and take and employ other dire means to put all sophisticated Juniors in their rightful humble places and to say 'darn', 'git', 'ain't' and use other more meaningful and direct expressions to chagrin and embarrass all sallow Seniors. Furthermore, the grand old traditions, organizations, Ag. ice cream cones, and the dearly beloved and hallowed faculty were lauded, applauded and set forth for perpetuation. Silent, awed, inspired, these Freshmen went out into the forest of trials, tribulations, rules, and dinks, to arrive, to see, to conquer!

As Sophomores they departed from good ole Morgantown last Spring, to seek their separate spots of geography — to while away a summer of depression, repression and social anticipation.

Enrolled again, once more back to the old skirmish of study, dates and proms they, this fall, became smart, chic, wise-thinking Sophomores. They were the proud recipients of many lovely compliments from those, lowest of all, Freshmen, world-wise Juniors and sedate Seniors.

The Class of 1934 has been, and will continue to be throughout this year, the most excellent, nearest perfect, best looking, most progressive and highest honored in every way of any Sophomore class that has ever preceded. May the ability and reputation as the most egotistical Sophomore class ever, go down through history and remain untouched and unsoiled in the archives.

FRESHMAN

Freshman Class History

OFFICERS OF THE FRESHMAN CLASS

President	MYRON KAPNER
Vice President	WILBUR COX
Secretary	EVELYN COX
Treasurer	EDWARD SIMMS

Braving the effects of a jobless summer and undismayed at the general depression, some five hundred of us put in our appearance for the Freshman week routine. Tours of the campus, explanations of its traditions and the rules governing our life upon it, that hectic stretch of organization rushing, all left us in a daze as our first few days in the University passed by. There were Freshman dances, mixes, and we were the much talked of "popular young college man and woman".

But things were to change. "The sterner stuff of which men are made" was put to test as our instructors ruthlessly piled on assignment after assignment, regardless of the fact that we "never had to do that much in one day at Pagoda High". Tall menacing figures in long black robes called certain young men of our number into the midnight darkness of the stadium to remind them of rules that had either been forgotten or ignored, and to give them cause not to disregard these same rules again. Girls that had been so "really terribly nice" as they outlined the advantages to be gained by pledging Gabba Nawful Lot, suddenly became Mrs. Mussolinis that forcibly demanded long hours in study hall every afternoon, along with hours of work on Saturday mornings.

We finally got into the swing of things, learned how to get with a little study, what we never could have at Pagoda, found out where to check our wraps at the dances, became acquainted with the many embarrassing incident to a bank failure and in general got our bearings as University students. Those of us that had come along just for the ride and the good time got our ride when grades for the first semester were made public.

As the year draws to a close we are fast perfecting that bored, nothing--effects-me attitude that the college magazines would have us believe marks us as "college", and we're anxiously awaiting arrival of our successors to spring it on them. We're sure they'll like it. We did.

FRESHMAN CLASS

ACTIVITIES

Mountaineer Week Team

Once again in keeping with the established custom, the sixth annual Mountaineer Week Team visited approximately ninety high schools throughout the state on March 28, 29, 30, and 31. The team was composed of Dick Bias, manager, Henry Schrader, William Sydnor, Harold Neff, Hale Watkins, William Parriott, Jack Burdette, Floyd Schwartzwalder, DeWitt White, Ed Smith, and Ned Ragland.

Heretofore, the state has always furnished the necessary funds to finance the Team. This year, due to financial conditions, no money was appropriated for this purpose. Mountain took the lead in financing the project and was ably assisted by F. Roy Yoke, Alumni Secretary and sponsor of the Team. Together with the fullest cooperation of the Student Body, the funds were raised and the Team paid its annual visit to the high school students. This work has proven to be of great benefit to the University and the State.

Junior Prom Queen

The crowning of Miss Elizabeth Hucy of Mannington as Queen of the Junior Prom was the outstanding feature of the annual dance given May 6 by the members of the Junior Class in honor of the Senior Class.

The custom of selecting one of the most beautiful and outstanding members of the Junior Class to reign over the dance was begun in 1924, but was discontinued until 1930, when Miss Frances Ebling of Wheeling was given the coveted honor and relinquished it in 1931 to Miss Annette Wiley of Charleston.

This year, approximately two hundred couples witnessed the crowning of Miss Huey as queen by President Turner to whom she was presented by Stanley Power, chairman of the Junior Prom Committee.

Miss Huey, who is a member of Pi Beta Phi, is an exceedingly active and popular member of the Junior Class.

Acting as attendants in the queen's court were:

Mary Moore, Ronceverte.
Marie Cox, Morgantown.
Betty Harr, Fairmont.
Jane Jester, New Cumberland.
Marguerite Elliott, Wilsonburg.
Mary Wilson Siple, Romney.

The Mountaineer

A tradition which was begun in 1928 was again followed this year by the election of Edward H. Cubbon, of Shinnston, as the "Mountaineer" by the members of the student body. This is the highest honor which can be bestowed upon a student because the person honored is chosen upon a basis of personal qualifications, loyalty to Mountaineer traditions, and service to the school.

"Eddie" Cubbon is an outstanding athlete. Beginning his brilliant basketball career at Shinnston High School where, in 1928, he established the reputation of being all-state center. On his entrance to the University in the fall of 1928, he played freshman basketball and then regular forward on the Varsity team in 1930, 1931, and 1932. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, Alpha Omega, Fi Batar Cappar, Varsity Club, and served as assistant in the physical education department during his Senior year.

Mr. Cubbon has a pleasing personality and is liked by everyone on the campus. The Monticola wishes to extend to the student body its congratulations on the excellency of the selection.

Mr. Cubbon is of the same calibre as the men who have preceded him as "Mountaineer", namely; George Jackson in 1928, "Big Sleepy" Glenn in 1929, "Little Sleepy" Glenn in 1930, and Nelson Lang in 1931.

Monticola Calendar 1930-31

SEPTEMBER

17—New Frosh, masculine, by the by, are instructed in rules, and the "don'ts" to avoid contact with the vigilance committee.

18—Black ties and blue and gold caps appear as permanent campus decorations for the year.

19—Sorority and fraternity actives ambitiously try to "lead pipe" all desirable rushees, the while mopping perspiring brows, elucidating fervantly about the weather.

22—Seven luminaries, five men and two women, make the highest honor role in the A. B. school.

23—Bill Doll has the Hotel Morgan band now, my lads — reasonable rates is his slogan and he appreciates campus patronage. Thank you!

24—First football thuse is held in Commencement hall brings back ye good ol' memories of Freshman days. Bernard Sclove is elected president of the student board of editors of the West Virginia law quarterly.

25—R. O. T. C. chooses sponsors — headed by Mildred Varner.

26—Loan fund . . . of course you have heard of it . . . to help the needy students . . . a ray of joy. Mountaineers defeat Duquesne 14-6, in opening game of the year. Freak of nature — "Moonshine" — on the campus today, but the secret is — that it is a humorous publication.

29—Bank of Morgantown closes its doors. Hail all, hail, the depression is over and the panic is on!

30—Sororities pledge 120 women.

31—How college booms as 250 junior farmers gambol gaily gazzing at girlies.

OCTOBER

3—Kappa Kappa Gamma is hostess to annual convention of Lambda province. The Forest Festival is enhanced by four co-ed princesses, Orra Maude Allender, Peggie Preston, Dorothy Newman, and Eulan Engle.

4—Harold Neff, Eddie Higgs, and Dean Stone agitate continuously for loan fund . . . woe is me!

5—Cow college students recover from first Ag mix. W. S. G. A., W. A. A. and Y. W. begin membership drives.

8—West Virginia Threesome, Vannoy, Richards, and Knutti broadcast the dear ol' Alma Mater songs and ditties to the fraternity sweethearts.

10—Phi Beta Pi, med fraternity, corners pledge market.

11—Panthers down Mountaineers 34-0. What a line . . . what a line!

13—Weather is wet — so is everyone. Ah gripe!

17—Phi Sigma Delta is awarded Hillel scholarship cup. Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Kappa Tau receive the A. J. Hare and the Darbey cups. Get a load of this — W. V. U. 14 and W. & L. 0.

19—Fred Landolphi and Garnet Protzman lead in annual high grade compilation. Congratulations.

21—Special train leaves for Michigan with load of studes. No I didn't go, the jolly old wallet was busted . . . doncha know. West Virginia cross country team opens season with meet against Pitt between periods of Plebes and Tech.

24—One would scarcely know the old arsenal as gay little princesses peep over broad masculine shoulders at the first general dance of the year.

25—Tau Delta Theta becomes West Virginia Alpha of Alpha Sigma Phi. Bulletin! Co-eds catch cadets sans clothing in the armory — not intentional — the young ladies were hunting their new sponsor capes.

26—Detroit 9, Varsity 7.
27—Bill McCue heads Cadet Hop committee for the year.
28—Moonshine parody number is distributed.
29—Loan hund achieves some results . . . we gladly report a total of $500.
30—Dr. Porterfield recalls "U" days of the gay 90's. Halloween. Irish Crowe is awarded a scholarship at the Atlantic City dairy meet. University places 8th in contest.
31—Freshmen defeat Pitt greenies at Fairmont—10-0. Ray, ray college, Phi Sigs, Sigma Nu's, Delts, Phi Kaps, Delta Kappa Psi's and Newman Club open fraternal social season with informal dances. WHAT a BIG week end . . . West Virginia editors convene for annual meeting . . . Oswald Garrison Villard is guest speaker . . . I bet we read about Scott's Run in the Nation next month.

NOVEMBER

1—Only 45 students withdraw from the University because of financial difficulties.
3—State editors advocate the expansion of the School of Journalism.
5—BULLETIN! WUXTRY! WUXTRY! Bank of Morgantown reopens . . . Just a year now and you can get your money. Wickersham (the Prohibition man y'know) speaks at the bar association meeting.
6—The above notable and legal advisors feasted at the Hotel Morgan.
8—The TORCH lights up 35 wriggling SERPENT peldges. Ho, hum, just another campaign — this one is for a Mountaineer statue on the circle . . . yeah, we think it's dumb, too.
9—Mountaineers capture the scalp of the Bobcats . . . luck day. Sprinters vie with Geneva.
13—Since there are no more busses leaving for WASHINGTON, Bill Doll manages to finally come across with the directory.
14—Harriers win meet with Carnegie Tech. New fall formals proudly displayed at men's Pan.
15—Mountain pledges 12 little hills . . . yes darling, if they can stand the tear of erosion they'll be Mountains some day too
17—Japan invades Manchuria . . . co-eds spend sleepless nights worrying over the safety of young officers.
19—James Stephan wins all campus cross country race, thereby adding a feather to the Teke's cap.
21—College athletes again are in their glory . . . Varsity journeys to Annapolis for cross country race . . . Blue and Gold clashes with Penn state, and Alumnae of the good ole days witness Library dedication . . . a high time was had by all.
23—First Mountaineer memorial show at Met nets $170 for statue. Ha.
24—W. & J. take laurels from the "U" in the closing game of the season. Latest scandal aired in the Fi Batar Bull Sheet.
26—Heigh ho everybody, we're off for home and pumpkin pie.
30—Bags and baggage we're back again.

DECEMBER

1—Phi Beta Kappa initiates six. Al Fittro and Dean Stone represent University at Inter-collegiate convention in New York.
2—Junior Panhellenic council is formed.
3—Larkin urges students to pay all debts . . . better get out your I. O. U.'s . . . the bally old allowance can't meet 'em all this month.
5—Phi Mu's, Alpha Xi's, Alpha Phi's have open houses. Joe Dotson is awarded Warner trophy for being the most popular football man.
6—Campus Joe College indignantly denies that his girl is sloppy.

8—Holly berries and mistletoe . . . "Y" GIFT SHOPPE opens . . . Only 16 more shopping days until Christmas.

9—Eddie Bartrug chosen Plebe basketball coach.

10—W. A. A. stages fashion show. Varsity rifle team wins telegraphic match with Indiana.

11—Johnnie Morris (the Sigma Chi Morris) is appointed football manager for 1932.

12—Torch and Serpent dance. Ha ha, the Indians have gone back to the reservations and we have once more decided to play with D. and E.

15—Y. W. C. A. gives a party for the poor children — poor kids!

16—Press club makes the headlines — six brilliant scintillating acts. Vaudeville and style show, dazzling dancers, burping bands and very high class entertainment.

17—AT LAST CHRISTMAS VACATION IS HERE! HOORAY!

JANUARY

5—Where is the arm of the law? Help! Police! Fraternity houses are looted! Sergeant Young replaces Baerd on the R. O. T. C. staff.

7—"Mr. Pimm Passes By" at the Metropolitan tonight. He is presented by the Dramatic club in its first production of the year. Wesleyan wins a hard fought game from the Varsity by a margin of 26-25. Forty-two graduates join the list of the unemployed.

9—Delts start a new "wrinkle" by taking their girlies roller skating at Point Marion. Basketeers meet Geneva.

12—Sherlock Stansbury makes startling discovery — shame on you activity book filchers.

13—La Tertulia, the Red Dragon Casteliers, and Phi Epsilon Phi hold initiations.

14—Pre-registration for second semester totals 1650.

15—Valient vandals very viciously . . . well anyway take "No Smoking" signs from Woodburn! FINAL EXAMS — need more be said?

25—Freddie Bergen's orchestra plays at the Military ball.

30—Twenty-three hundred and sixty-five enroll for the new semester. Police permit legitimate "Hell" week, pray what do they mean by legitimate? Pitt wins the leather pill game from the Varsity 35-27 and the Pitt Freshmen win 26-24. Quite a large weekend for Pitt. Mountain has their first matinee dance.

FEBRUARY

2—Matmen invade Indiana. Annual farm week begins.

4—Hard floor men overwhelmingly overwhelm Salem 50-38. Freshmen set the Medical Corps back 33-20. Kappa pledges give dance in Armory.

5—Campus still talking of Judge Florence Allen of the Supreme Court of Ohio, only woman judge on the Supreme Court bench in the U. S., who spoke in Convocation Wednesday. Sigma Sigma, Jewish woman's sorority given campus recognition.

6—The women can have a better time without men than with them — witness the Coed prom. Oh, and by the way 2 scared little farmers (A G R preps) invaded "no man's land", but were quickly eliminated.

9—Kappa Beta Phi, international legal woman's fraternity installs chapter in Law school. Now if we were just as ambitious as Freddie Moore and some of the rest of 'em.

13—Second general University dance draws big crowd. Numerous persons take a trek to the Smoky City to see our famous Mary Jo Matthews in "The Band Wagon". Mammoth indoor carnival held in Field house. Penn State, Michigan, Pitt, Ohio State, Georgetown, Geneva and Temple set new records in feats of strength and athletic accomplishment. Oh, by the way it's President Turner's birthday . . . yes, just 16, don't rush girls.

14—The threatening hand of the Vigilance committee hovers menacingly above many a freshman's head.

16—Fraternity and sorority initiations fill Athenaeum social columns. Dr. McGaw's going to have plenty of work handling flu cases due to chest exposure.

17—Mountaineers defeat Carnegie Tech and Freshmen ape the Varsity . . . wrestling and boxing teams, not to be outdone also annex laurels.

18—Senior military men receive assignments . . . coeds worried until they are assured that it doesn't mean that the laddies will have to go to the Chinese war.

19—Varsity defeats Georgetown 50-28.

21—Creighton defeats the "U" 27-26. Sad?

22—Ah, the beauties are to have a break! The Athenaeum is to sponsor a Beauty Contest!

24—Y. W. C. A. World Cruise. See the world in 120 minutes, ladies.

25—Mountaineer election ends in tie — so they say.

27—W. A. A. introduces bridge to the campus. Fraternities and sororities enter teams.

29—Panhellenic and Woman's Athletic association will award loving cups and prizes. See 'em in Fredlock's window. Look nice on your dresser, wouldn't they?

MARCH

1—Matmen down Western Reserve.

2—Watch your head! Plaster falls in Oglebay Hall.

3—K. A.'s lead in fraternity track meet. Eddie Cubbon is elected Mountaineer.

5—Lindbergh's baby lost. Beulah Lawler is elected Panhellenic president.

8—Men's debating team (Havener, Wise and Ginsberg) return from trip North, reporting one defeat out of six debates. And a traffic cop held them up under the Hudson to search their car for baby Lindbergh.

9—Some frisky collitch boy got a broken leg while gaily riding a shovel down Spruce street. Tis the first snow, y'know and boys will be boys.

11—Annual Mardi Gras. D'ja ever see so many fellows tanked at once? Fi Batar pledges are announced.

12—K. A.'s and Sigma Nus walk away with big intramural meet. Snow flurries . . . continued colder. Coeds nominate new officers.

14—Debaters meet Allegheny . . . no decision meet as was the W. & J. meet last night.

15—Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemistry, pledges 9. Women elect leaders for next year. Tommy Richener gives his senior organ recital.

17—Admiral Byrd talks to packed theatre tonight . . . school children for miles around journey here to hear him.

18—Captains are named for next winter's sports — Bob Lathem, boxing; Floyd Schwartzwalder, wrestling; and Wilbur Sortet, basketball. Big Mountaineer edition of the Athenaeum appears . . . shows good reporting all right. Phi Mu and Pi Phi formals held over weekend. University enters big intercollegiate boxing conference tournament at Pitt. Captain Hawkins wins two bouts for W. Va. Competing teams are: Temple, Carnegie Tech, Bucknell, W. & J., Duquesne, West Virginia, Pitt.

19—Rifle team adds 26th victory to their illustrous list.
21—Track and baseball squads begin spring training.
23—Easter vacation and midsemester grades.
28—Back to school again. Femmes blossom out in new Easter regalia.

APRIL

1—Methinks I hear on the breeze the first faint murmur of campus politics. Remember last year when one edition of the Athenaeum furnished food for all the little fishies out at Cheat?
2—Women's debating team goes to Washington. Good luck, girls.
5—Vote for Miss West Virginia today.
6—Congratulations Miss West Virginia — we mention no names, because our predictions on the Junior Prom Queen went completely haywire last year.
8—Men's organizations entertain with dances. Ah, such is the life of a butterfly.
9—Professor Saposnekow elicudates on the number of empty chairs on Saturday mornings. "Classes, you know, seem to be woven around the social calendar."
15—High School literary contest is in full swing. Last men's Pan of the year. Oh, the new faces and the dresses! Anyway the depression enables the ladies to have more clothes for less money.
22-23—Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Alpha Xi Delta and Gamma Phi Beta entertain with formals. One always gets a rush at one's own dance — that is a consolation for the seniors at least.
25-26-27—Spring fever . . .
29—Kappas entertain with dinner dance.
30—Last general University dance.

MAY

2-3—Shows, car rides, and dinners for the independent voters seem quite attractive, and after all why not take advantage of a few and then vote as one's conscience dictates?
4—Platforms are announced and primaries are held. The politicians are in their glory.
6—Everyone got everyone he or she wanted on the ticket. Now for the "big" campaign. The Queen of the Junior Class reigns at the Prom. Who wouldn't like to be attended by such an attractive court?
7-8-9—Old familiar lines are whetted up. "You see if my man is elected—" Mothers are guests of the women's organizations. What a round of teas, parties, and not to forget the Queen and her court at the Festival and Link Day.
11—Elections today — everything strictly honorable — run on the highest ethical plane. Now don't get me wrong.
12—Non-athletic awards are made by the Interfraternity council.
13—The Senior ball . . . yes as much as we have griped about studying we will miss the old routine of classes lightened by a hectic weekend.
27 to June 4—Final examinations. This heat — really swimming at Cheat is quite refreshing.
30—Annual military inspection and cadet parade.

JUNE

5—Baccalaurate sermon.
6—Alumni day.
7—Commencement day.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Samson Finn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Cohen, Dr. A. L. Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Al Berman.

ALPHA PHI DELTA

Members of the Alpha Phi Delta fraternity entertained with an informal dance at their chapter house Saturday evening, April 16. The hours were from 8 till 11 o'clock.

WOMEN'S PAN-HELLENIC

Approximately 300 couples attended the first women's Pan-Hellenic dance which was given in the American Legion Armory, Saturday evening, April 30. Eddie Barrett's Orchestra furnished the music for the affair.

Committee heads for the affair were: Hannah Geyer '34, refreshments; Ruth Simpson '33, arrangements; Margaret Wilbourne '34, tickets; Mary Margaret Martin '34, chaperones; Ruth Wolverton '33, publicity; and Elizabeth McCoy '33, orchestra.

FREAK DAY

Everything from pajamas to baby dresses were modeled on the Campus, December 3rd., by the pledges of Torch and Serpent, honorary Sophomore men's organization. The occasion for this display was not a style show but just the annual "Freak Day" of the organization.

On this day the pledges are required to attend classes in freak costumes and to be present at Convocation, where we may add, they are not always given a very cordial welcome by Dr. Armstrong.

Although some of the outfits are ridiculous enough to almost break up classes and disturb everyone in general, the custom is an old and revered one on the campus.

ATHLETICS

A PERSONALITY

Last September Earl "Greasy" Neale took over the foothall reins at the University under the critical eyes of both the student body and the entire state. He had a job on his hands. He supplanted a man who was loved as an individual and respected as a tested and true "Mountaineer." Coach Neale had both to prove his coaching ability and his "spirit." He had to make friends and he had to show a skeptical audience that he "belonged." Now, after a year's trial, it can truthfully be said that "Greasy" Neale does belong. This season can be said to have been successful. The record of 6 lost and 4 won might easily have been the reverse; 6 won and 4 lost. We point, of course, to the games with W. & J. and Detroit. Neale did not leave his footba'l in the stadium after practice. He lived and talked it every hour of every day. He spoke indefatigably at "thuses", fraternity houses, banquets and everywhere the Mountaineer spirit prevailed. His fighting spirit communicated itself to every audience he faced and he did more, perhaps, than any other individual to arouse that spirit in a hitherto legarthic student body. In one short year Coach Neale has won a place in the hearts of every Mountaineer. He belongs to the University. He developed a good football team in the face of severe handicaps. He has built his foundation well. Next fall should see the structure of a new football era loom against the horizon of Mountaineer Field as the second Neale-coached Mountaineer team takes the field in September.

THE OUTLOOK FOR 1932

Considerable optimism exists in the Mountaineer ranks as we review the possibilities for next fall. Unquestionably both Neale and the men were hampered last year by the difficulties encountered in installing and learning a new system of play. Especially was this difficulty apparent in the forward pass defense and it was the weakness in that department which probably explains several defeats suffered the past season. Next fall, however, we can expect these difficulties to be eradicated by experience and, with strong freshman material to agument the veteran holdovers, a successful season looms in the offing. Thirty-two candidates reported to Coach Neale for spring practice and these men will form the substance of next year's squad. They are: Wright, Schwartzwalder, Stewart, Carl White, Sortet, Karr, Goodwin, F. Wilson, Schweitzer, Vargo, McDonald, Lough, Forte, Gouker, Anderson, Zirbs, Swisher, Fidler, H. White, Droheck, Canich, Marker, Allen, Stern, Ratliff, Stone, Thomas, Kopko, Newby, T. Wilson, Stydahar, Waggoner, and Parriott.

SCHWARTZWALDER BROWN BEALL

WEST VIRGINIA 14; DUQUESNE 6

West Virginia opened the 1931 season with a hard earned victory over Duquesne by a score of 14-6. Overhung skies threatening rain throughout the day kept the opening day crowd down to a mere 9,000 spectators who came to watch the Mountaineers in their first start under the new regime of Coach Earl (Greasy) Neale.

The Mountaineers dominated the first half offensive but failed to convert many opportunities into scores and were held to one touchdown which came late in the second period on a lateral pass from Parriott to Captain Doyle after a consistent march down the field. The line-plunging of Dotson was an outstanding factor in the 50 yard march that placed West Virginia in scoring position.

Duquesne opened the second half with an aerial offense that had the Mountaineers bewildered throughout the third period and pushed over their touchdown with Deluca, Devinney, and Zaninelli sharing in the brilliant work. The visitors failed to convert and fears of the home fans were quieted somewhat when Parriott took the next kickoff on his own 10 yard line and returned it 68 yards to the Duquesne 22. The offense fell down, however, and there was no further scoring in the period.

In the last quarter Duquesne again opened up with a forward passing attack from mid-field, but Sebulsky, fleet Mountaineer halfback, gathered in the toss intended for a Duquesne back and raced 75 yards behind perfect interference for the second West Virginia touchdown.

The game ended shortly after when Sortet intercepted a Duquesne pass on the latter's 40 yard mark and ran to the 20. The game was replete with thrills as both teams opened up in the air and long runs brought the crowd to its feet time after time.

WEST VIRGINIA 7; FORDHAM 20

Fordham defeated the Mountaineers in New York by playing a "heads up" brand of football as against indifferent, "spotty", work by West Virginia. With the exception of Dotson and Stone and possibly one or two others, Neale's men failed to impress. After one brief flash to start the game the Mountaineers were on the defense throughout the first half. Captain Johnny Doyle was a marked man and failed to get away except for some early end runs and the brilliant dash for a touchdown on a fake reverse in the first play of the final period. Fordham scored two of her three touchdowns from passes. Stone returned a kickoff 52 yards to threaten again but West Virginia could not add the needed yardage. Later in the game Stone again treated the fans to a sprint of 36 yards. Fordham made 13 first down to 8 for the Mountaineers. Seven were the result of passes and 11 came in the free-scoring first half.

COVEY C WHITE CANICH

WEST VIRGINIA 0; PITT 34

After being held on almost even terms throughout the entire first half by a fighting Mountaineer line, the Pitt Panthers broke loose in the last two periods to increase their one-touchdown lead to a 34-0 debacle.

Pitt's much-heralded forward wall was played to a standstill during the first half and only a completed long pass from Heller to Reider for a gain of 53 yards in the second quarter enabled the Panthers to leave the field at half-time with a 6-0 lead. It was early evident that the pass defense was the weakest point in the Mountaineer team.

Pitt's second touchdown came in the third quarter when Heller shot over right tackle for the score after he and Luch had advanced the ball down the field for three consecutive first downs to place it in scoring position. The last quarter was an orgy of Pitt passes and long runs. Luch scored early in the quarter and a galexy of Pitt substitutes completed the rout.

Marker, starting his first game for the Mountaineers, was the outstanding ground gainer for the Nealemen while Schwartzwalder and Lewis in the line bore the brunt of the West Virginia defense in the first half. Marker made five of the six first downs tallied by the Mountaineers but at no time was West Virginia able to advance the ball past mid-field. Pitt chalked up 17 first downs to demonstrate the potential power which had made it a pre-game favorite.

WEST VIRGINIA 19; WASHINGTON & LEE 0

Under perfect skies and before a near-capacity crowd of 12,000 spectators, West Virginia trounced the Washington and Lee Generals 19-0 at Laidley Field in Charleston.

The annual classic of Southern West Virginia was staged in the presence of Governor William G. Conley of West Virginia and thousands of fans from nearby Virginia and Ohio, as well as the Mountaineer delegation. This was West Virginia's thirteenth victory in a series which dates back to 1895.

Though the Mountaineers were on the offense most of the first half, a touchdown and extra point in the early moments of the second quarter was the only score made in that period. Fourteen first downs were made by the Mountaineers as compared with two for the Generals. Penalties were frequent and about evenly divided between the two teams.

The first Mountaineer score came a few minutes after play was resumed in the second quarter. Bailey punted out of bounds for W. & L. on their own 44 and in two line plays West Virginia made only five yards. Parriott then passed to Sortet on the General's 37 and he dodged his way down the left sideline the remaining distance to the goal.

In the third quarter West Virginia took the ball in mid-field again on an exchange of punts and on the second play Parriott passed to Sortet on the W. & L. 28 yard stripe. Dotson made a yard at center and Doyle took a lateral pass from Parriott and raced around right end for a touchdown. Parriott missed the try for extra point.

West Virginia's last touchdown came late in the fourth period when diminutive Harry Marker, substituting for Captain Doyle, dashed 53 yards through left tackle to the goal line. The game ended on the first play after the final kick-off.

The usual between-halves ceremonies were executed with much splendor. The fourteen R. O. T. C. sponsors were introduced to Gov. Conley, his wife, and their party by Major Fletcher, commandant of the University R. O. T. C. corps. All the girls were given boquets of flowers by the Governor.

WEST VIRGINIA 7; DETROIT 9

A hard fighting Mountaineer football team came very close to bringing back the bacon from Detroit in a night game which the Titans won by virtue of a blocked punt in the closing minutes of the second period. All of the scoring came in that quarter. Detroit scored first on a field goal from the toe of "Rocky" Parsaca. Soon after Captain Johnny Doyle broke loose and electrified the crowd with a 52 yard sprint for a touchdown. Sortet kicked the goal and things looked bright for the Mountaineers for a time. However, with less than a minute to go in the first half, Stone stood too close to his line and three Detroit men broke through to block the kick. Hess, tackle, fell on the ball over the goal line. West Virginia played fine defensive ball in the last half, trying only one-third as many plays as their opponents. The Nealemen, however, took many chances and threw pass after pass in an effort to convert the victory but the Titans were equally effective in their stand. The games ended with no further scoring by either team.

KARR H. WHITE STONE

WEST VIRGINIA 0; KANSAS STATE 19

Playing in intermittent but driving rain and on a water-logged gridiron, the undefeated and untied Kansas Aggies maintained their clean slate by decisively downing the Mountaineers 19-0. First downs stood at 11 and 10 in favor of the Kansas eleven and the game was fought on nearly even terms until the last quarter.

The only scores during the first half were two beautifully placed field goals from the toe of Captain Harry Cronkite, Kansas ace, and neither team was ever closer the goal line than the 20 yard marker.

The Aggies quickly added to their 6 point advantage by pulling a surprise pass for a touchdown from the West Virginia 33 where Kansas had, just preceding the play, recovered a Mountaineer fumble following the second half kick-off.

A long march of 73 yards accounted for the fourth score, featured by the line plunging of Auker and Graham. West Virginia advanced twice into Kansas territory but could not keep up the drive, losing the ball the first time on an incomplete pass on the Kansas 33, and the other time, on downs on the Aggie 13.

Schweitzer and Dotson were the defensive and offensive stars for West Virginia while the whole Kansas team made possible the rushing of Auker and Graham.

WEST VIRGINIA 12; WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN 7

For the 20th time in 24 meetings, and for the 12th time in succession, the Mountaineers triumphed over their traditional rivals the Wesleyan Bob-Cats by a score of 12-7 in one of the greatest games ever played between the two state rivals in the history of their football relations.

West Virginia, profiting first by recovering a fumble deep in Wesleyan territory, march 25 yards for its first touchdown. In the third period, Sebulsky intercepted a Wesleyan pass on the West Virginia 32 and ran it back deep into the Bob-Cat defense. From this point the Mountaineers marched 35 yards for their second touchdown.

Wesleyan put on the greatest offensive of the year seen on Mountaineer Field by pushing steadily down the field for a sustained drive of 80 yard and a touchdown early in the last quarter. Gyp Battles, Wesleyan's bid for All-America fame, bore nine-tenths of the brunt of the battle and covered himself with glory in defeat.

The West Virginia defense grew stubborn after this drive and prevented further damage during the remaining minutes. A punting duel terminated the game. Dotson and Covey made the touchdowns for West Virginia on thrusts through the line while Hull made the score for Wesleyan in a similar manner. Sortet missed both of the Mountaineer's tries for extra points while Battles converted his sole attempt for the Bob-Cats. Captain Doyle sparkled with his brilliant return of punts to keep West Virginia on better than even terms in the exchange of kicks.

MARKER SEBULSKY DROBECK

WEST VIRGINIA 0; GEORGETOWN 13

Georgetown displayed great power in subduing the Mountaineers 13-0 before a crowd of 8,000 persons in the Griffith Stadium at Washington, D. C. The Hoyas were masters of the situation throughout the entire game but fumbled many times to stop threatening advances. Georgetown rolled up 13 first downs to 8 for the Mountaineers, and only once during the entire game lost the ball on downs.

The first quarter was Georgetown's but ended scoreless. Early in the second period a 77 yard march, started late in the first quarter, culminated in the Hoyas' first touchdown. The second touchdown came suddenly in the middle of the last quarter when Hudson intercepted a lateral pass on the Mountaineer 25 yard mark and raced to the goal line. Georgetown drop-kicked for the extra point.

The only real threat of a Mountaineer touchdown came late in the third period after Doyle had returned a punt to his own 27. A long pass on which Georgetown tripped a man gave West Virginia a first down on the 50. H. White crashed center for 12 yards and Marker broke through tackle for 25. The Mountaineer offense was piled up here, however, and Georgetown took the ball on downs on its own 6 yard line.

Anderson was the defensive star of the Mountaineers and Homer White was the chief ground gainer in the backfield. Marker's 25 yard dash and Doyle's consistently brilliant running back of punts supplied the West Virginia supporters with plenty of excitement.

WEST VIRGINIA 19; PENN STATE 0

The Penn State Lions fell before West Virginia 19-0 before a home-coming crowd in what was the final game of the season for the Pennsylvanians. Dotson scored twice and Covey once for the Mountaineers, while Parriott kicked one of the extra points. Penn State never got within scoring distance and was submerged under a sixteen to three first-down margin.

The defensive work of the Penn State team, mainly by Moonves, prevented several Mountaineer scores when passes were thrown with reckless daring by Doyle and Marker close to the Lion's goal line. The Penn State star intercepted two and knocked down others that would have meant touchdowns otherwise.

Dotson, Marker, and Parriott featured with long runs for West Virginia, and first named scoring the initial touchdown of the game on a 48 yard run from scrimmage in the first quarter. Dotson and Covey tallied in the fourth period when Parriott's forward passing proved too much for the tiring Lions. Doyle's returns of punts continued to feature his play of the season.

DOTSON SORTET PARRIOTT

WEST VIRGINIA 13; WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON 14

More than a decade ago, at the Polo Grounds in New York, a Neale-coached W. & J. team spotted a powerful Lafayette eleven two touchdowns in the first half and returned in the second half to fight their way to a one-point victory. Last fall at the Island Stadium in Wheeling another Neale-coached team, the Mountaineers, fell just short of repeating that same performance against Neale's first love, the Presidents.

A stirring last half rally by the Mountaineers which kept 6,000 on their feet for half an hour was not enough to defeat a valiant and fighting Wash-Jeff eleven. The Presidents won, 14-13.

Bill Parriott, on the starting end of eighteen passes during the afternoon, was the individual star of the game, his spectacular passing overshadowing the powerful line plunging of the W. & J. ace, "Stew" Wilson.

Both teams played conservative ball during the first half which ended 14-0 for W. & J., but the Mountaineers opened up with all their fireworks in the last two periods to steal the show. At halftime the Presidents had 8 first downs to 4 for West Virginia. But the end of the game found the Mountaineers in the lead with 13 first downs to 8 for the Presidents.

West Virginia kicked off to open the second half but soon took the ball on her own 48. Two line plays failed and Parriott passed to Sortet on the Mountaineer 21. Another pass, Parriott to Karr, placed the ball on the W. & J. 5 yard line and on fourth down, after trying a line play, a lateral, and an end run, Parriott again passed, this time to Dotson in the end zone, for the score.

The Presidents held and it was not until the last period that West Virginia began another drive that resulted in the second touchdown. Taking the ball on the W. & J. 45, Parriott ran and passed the ball to the W. & J. 7 yard mark where four plays left it a half-foot from the goal. Marker raced the punt from mid-field to the 28. Two passes from Parriott to Sortet and Covey respectively took it to the 12. Parriott then threw the third successive pass to Marker across the goal line for the score. For only the second time during the year Pariott missed the try for extra point. A last minute desperate Mountaineer passing attack ended on the W. & J. 15 when Kaiser intercepted a Parriott pass shortly before the game ended.

The Presidents scored in each of the first two periods on rushes and end runs by Wilson and Armstrong, an intercepted Mountaineer pass on the West Virginia 17 yard line paving the way for the first. Rometa scored the President's second touchdown after a run of eighteen yards after less than a dozen plays had taken the ball into Mountaineer territory. Wilson hit the line to score the first touchdown and kicked both goals for the extra points and the margin of victory.

LOOKING AHEAD

STADSVOLD
Coach

The news that Francis Stadsvold might be lost to the University next year because of a possible "better offer" elsewhere came as a distinct shock to everyone closely connected with athletics here. Coach Stadsvold is the oldest mentor in point of service on the West Virginia staff and in the long period of years that he has been here the mild mannered gentleman from Minnesota has formed many close friendships. Then too, the added fact that his fast breaking style of offense and zone defense will be considerably favored by the new rule against "stalling", considerably enhances the desirability of his return in a practical sense. While the Mountaineer basketeers were, at best, an in and out club the past season, the prospects for next year are fairly bright. Sortet, Ashworth, Klug, Abruzzino, Stone, and Fromer remain from the Varsity squad and one of the strongest plebe teams in years will furnish Stadsvold with a wealth of Sophomore material that will more than give the veterans a fight for positions. This array includes Allen, Wilson, Stydahar, Fidler, and Stewart from the plebe first team, and three strong reserves in Gower, Ayersman, and Thomas. All in all the outlook is a bright one, especially if Stadsvold sees fit to return again as coach. It is sincerely hoped that next year will once more see him at the helm.

W. V. U. 25; W. VA. WESLEYAN 26

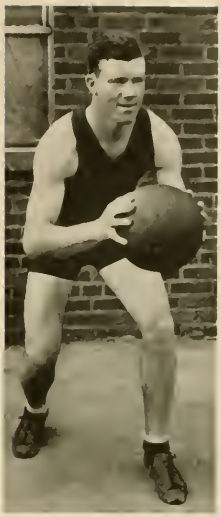
In a game that was replete with thrills from start tofinish, the Bob-Cats eked out a one-point victory over Stadvold's Mountaineers in what was the opening game of the season for West Virginia. Led by "Gyp" Battles, the Bob-Cats were seven points to the good at half time. West Virginia came back strong, however, to cut down the lead and stay in the running until the final whistle. Cubbon led the West Virginia scoring with four field goals. Battles caged five baskets and three fouls for Wesleyan.

W. V. U. 27; GENEVA 46

West Virginia was no match for the strong Geneva five who piled up an early lead and maintained it all the way. The Mountaineers were outscored 30 to 20 in the first half and the second half was a rout. Eddie Cubbon again led the scoring with six goals from the field and two fouls.

W. V. U. 42; TEMPLE 35

Showing a comp.ete reversal of form, Stadvold's men upset a l the early dope by trimming the strong Temple five on the Field House l.oor. The score at the half was 17 to 17. Cubbon again led the scoring but it was all around team play and fight that determined the margin of victory.



CAPTAIN DOYLE

W. V. U. 35; BETHANY 31

Bethany's supposedly weak team sprung a surprise and gave the Mountaineers plenty of trouble from whistle to whistle. Bethany led at the half by 19 to 17. Captain Doyle and "Cotton" Sortet divided scoring honors.

W. V. U. 27; PITT 35

West Virginia fought hard all the way but were unable to head the strong Panther quint coached by Doc Carlson. Pitt led 13 to 10 at half time and the Mountaineers were impotent against the Panther style of play. Cubbon played his usual good game and the team as a whole showed much improvement over previous form.

W. V. U. 50; SALEM 38

Going into the last half with a bare two-point lead, the Mounta neers held Salem to 18 points during the period while they collected 32 through the sharpshooting of Cubbon and Dotson. Cubbon scored 22 points, 20 of which were field goals, seven of the goals coming in the final period.

W. V. U. 30; W. & L. 31

After leading the Generals 21 to 17 at the half, the Mountaineers lost a heartbreaker in the Woodrow Wilson gym at Beckley when their vicious first-half attack was successfully bottled by the W. & L. defense in the second half. Cubbon was the individual star for West Virginia with six goals and three fouls.

KLUG

W. V. U. 31; GEORGETOWN 45

Swinging over to Washington the Mountaineers were ineffective against the Hoyas five in the second half. Each team collected seven goals in the first half but Georgetown was the more consistent from the foul line. Sortet led the attack with five baskets, four of which came in the first half.

W. V. U. 26; TEMPLE

West Virginia was unable to get going and suffered an overwhelming defeat at Philadelphia while the Temple five got ample revenge for the early season game at Morgantown. The score at the half was 26 to 8 in Temple's favor.

W. V. U. 26; U. S. MILITARY ACADEMY 42

The string of defeats on the Eastern trip continued as Army drew away from a half-time lead of 25 to 18 to smother the Mountaineers 42 to 26. Eddie Cubbon scored six goals in the first half for 12 of his team's 18 points in that period.

W. V. U. 21; BROOKLYN CRESCENT CLUB 39

The New Yorkers showed superiority throughout the game and brought the disastrous Eastern trip to a close with another defeat chalked up against the tiring Mountaineers. Crescent led 20 to 7 at the half.

W. V. U. 25; CARNEGIE TECH 21

The return home seemed to put new life into Stadvold's men. Tech was conceded the edge but fine work from the foul line by Dotson and Cubbon gave West Virginia a victory over the Pittsburghers. West Virginia led at the half, 13 to 7.

W. V. U. 50; GEORGETOWN 28

Again the dope was upset as West Virginia, led by Cubbon, turned the tables on the Hoyas by a decisive margin. The game was a rout after the first few minutes of play. West Virginia used thirteen men in the contest. Cubbon, with seven goals, was the individual star, while Dotson and Klug played their usual steady game.

W. V. U. 42; PENN STATE 33

The winning streak continued at the expense of the men from State College who were outclassed all the way. The score was 21 to 10 at the half. Cotton Sortet led his mates with nine field goals and two fouls in as many tries.

W. V. U. 26; CREIGHTON 27

Another thrilling one-pointer slipped away when the Mountaineer last half, last minute, rally failed just short of victory. Creighton had a 19 to 11 lead at the half.

W. V. U. 16; DUQUESNE 29

The swift-passing ball handlers from Pittsburgh were too clever for the Mountaineers and their artistic, methodical work gave them a well earned victory after a bare 10 to 9 lead in the first period. Coach Chick Davies' men were masters of the situation throughout the second half.

W. V. U. 29; W. & J. 38

The second-half jinx again was too much for the Mountaineers and an inspired W. & J. team increased their two-point lead steadily to win handily. Klug and Dotson were the individual stars for West Virginia.

W. V. U. 31; CARNEGIE TECH 45

West Virginia again repeated in its season of up-sets by bowing before Carnegie after defeating the Plaid at Morgantown. Tech was a much improved team while the Mountaineers played indifferently.

W. V. U. 44; W. & J. 25

Consistent team work earned revenge for the Mountaineers as W. & J. failed to display the form shown in the earlier game between the two.

SORTET

W. V. U. 19; PITT 22

In the greatest game seen at the Field House since Sleepy Glenn led his mates to victory over these same Pittites, the Mountaineers were helpless against the stalling methods of the Panthers and the gun cracked three points short of victory. The game was tied nine all at the half. It was even all the way with both teams missing many easy shots beneath the basket. Captain "Johnny" Doyle played the game of his career to lead both teams in scoring. He was easily the outstanding star on the floor.

W. V. U. 22; W. VA. WESLEYAN 26

Although West Virginia was again defeated by the Bob Cats, the brilliant play of Captain Doyle in his last game for the Mountaineers was something to watch and a fitting climax to the brilliant career of the Mountaineer two-sport captain. Klug, Dotson, Sortet, and Cubbon all played well but Wesleyan was again too strong.

WRESTLING

W. V. U. 18; WAYNESBURG 18

The Mountaineers tied with the Waynesburg Yellow Jackets in the opening match of the season at the Field House. Both teams scored three falls and one decision. Captain Fletcher 125, Schwartzwalder 155, and Schweitzer, heavyweight, threw their opponents, while Sharpe 115, Herd 135, and Johnson 165, were defeated in a like manner. Ward earned a time advantage over his man in the 145-pound class and Puskin, 175-pounder lost by a decision.

W. V. U. 30; WAYNESBURG 0

In a return match at Waynesburg, West Virginia showed improved form to down the Yellow Jackets 30 to 0. Sharpe 115, Fletcher 125, Herd 135, Ward 145, and Gwynn 175, won time decisions while Schwartzwalder 155, Johnson 165, and Schweitzer, heavyweight, threw their men.

W. V. U. 18; U. S. MILITARY ACADEMY 6

There were no falls scored in the match with Army at West Point which the Mountaineers took 18 to 6. Sharp 115, Fletcher 125, Ward 145, Schwartzwalder 155, Johnson 165, and Schweitzer, heavyweight, won decisions. Maclin 135, lost a close decision as did Levine in the 175-pound class.

COACH HARRICK

W. V. U. 15; OHIO STATE 9

Again there were no falls registered as West Virginia continued her string of victories against Ohio State at the Field House. Sharpe, Fletcher, Ward, Schwartzwalder, and Schweitzer won, while Null, Pushkin, and Johnson were defeated. Ward and Schweitzer both required two extra periods to defeat their strong opponents.

Standing (left to right)—Coach Harrick, Gwynne, Johnston, Schweitzer, Pushkin, Schwartzwalder, Manager Brown.

W. V. U. 0; INDIANA U. 30

West Virginia met defeat for the first time at the hands of the championship Indiana team in Bloomington on Feb. 4. Sharpe, 115-pounder, Ward 145, and Schwartzwalder 155, lost by falls. The other matches went the decision route.

FLETCHER
Captain

W. V. U. 10; PENN STATE 20

The Penn State grapplers proved too good for the Mountaineers in every class save two. Captain Fletcher and Schweitzer threw their men in the 125 and heavyweight classes respectively. Johnson 165, was thrown by his Penn State opponent and Sharpe, Null, Ward, Schwartzwalder, and Gwynn lost decisions.

W. V. U. 6; MICHIGAN 22

Again West Virginia met a stronger opponent and suffered defeat for the third straight time. Paller 115, Ward 145, Johnson 165, and Schweitzer, heavyweight, lost time decisions and O'Farrel 135, and Gwynne 175, were thrown. Captain Fletcher and Schwartzwalder earned time advantages in the 125 and 155-pound classes.

COACH
VACHERESSE

W. V. U. 5; CARNEGIE TECH 2

Morrison 115, and Neely 135, won on technical knockouts, Fisher 125, and Payne 175, won decisions, and Tech forfeited to West Virginia in the 165 pound class to account for the five points. Hamilton 145, lost a decision and Latham 155, was knocked out to give Tech their two victories.

W. V. U. 4; CARNEGIE TECH 3

In the most vicious fight ever seen in the Field House ring, Capt. Hawkins brought the margin of victory to his team by knocking out Croissant of Tech in the second round of their bout in the 175-pound class. Croissant was knocked down five times and Hawkins himself floored once during the melee. Fisher 125, and Neely 135, both scored technical knockouts over their opponents and Latham 155, lost to Burke of Tech via the same route. Hamilton lost a close decision in the 145-pound class. West Virginia forfeited in the 115-pound division and Tech in the 165-pound class.

W. V. U. 3; PITT 4

Fisher, Latham, and Jamison lost decisions to Conti, Schriker, and Seigal in the 125, 155, and 165 pound classes and Pitt claimed a forfeit in the 175 pound class to account for their margin of victory. Neely 135, and Hamilton 145, won over Santicola and Rubbo of Pitt by decisions while the third Mountaineer point came as a result of Pitt's forfeit in the 115 pound class.

W. V. U. 5; BUCKNELL 2

Wilson lost to Russo of Bucknell on a technical knockout in the 165 pound class and Bucknell claimed a forfeit in the 115 to gain their two points. Fisher, Neely, Hamilton, Latham, and Hawkins won decisions in the 125, 135, 145, 155, and 175 pound classes to sweep the match.

W. V. U. 3; TEMPLE 4

Temple, with a well balanced team, won decisions against Fisher, Latham, and Wilson and claimed a forfeit in the 115 pound class. The Mountaineer points were scored by Neely and Hawkins on decisions and Hamilton on a technical knockout.

CAPTAIN HAWKINS

W. V. U. 6; W. & J. 1

Wilson 165, lost a close one to Demedowitz, W. & J. ace, for the only defeat of the evening. W. & J. forfeited in the 125 and 175 pound classes. Goldberger 115, Hamilton 145, and Latham 155, all won decisions while Neely 135, earned a technical knockout in the third round of his bout with Fish of W. & J.

W. V. U. 4½; ARMY 2½

Neely 135, Hamilton 145, and Hawkins 175, won decisions over Colt, Kusener, and Kendall of Army. Latham 155, earned a draw with Clark of the Army as did Gallo against Hogan of Army in an extra 145 pound bout which was substituted for the 115 pound match. Wilson lost a decision in the 165 class for the only Mountaineer defeat.

W. V. U. 5½; DUQUESNE 1½

The Mountaineer mittmen completely swamped Duquesne, the visitors getting their only points on a forfeit in the 115 pound class and a draw between Vorhees of West Virginia and Stepeck in the 165. Hawkins, Neely and Fisher all won by technical knockouts while Hamilton scored on a decision. Puglia, plebe 115-pounder won a decision in an exhibition bout against Vitulla of Tech.

LATHAM

W. V. U. 3; PENN STATE 4

West Virginia lost by a forfeit in the 115 pound class and by decisions in the 125, 135, and 145 pound classes. Stunkard took the 155 pound bout on a decision and Hawkins accounted for his man over the same route. Latham scored a technical knockout over Polak of Penn State in the only bout that failed to go the limit.

W. V. U. 4; WESTERN MARYLAND 3

The Mountaineers ended a successful season with a win over Western Maryland at Westminister 4 to 3. West Virginia forfeited to Western Maryland in the 115-pound division, having no varsity representative in that class. Fisher, Neely, and Hamilton won decisions in the 125, 135, and 145 pound classes respectively over Myers, Tuckerman, and Borchers of Western Maryland. Bob Latham lost a "surprise decision" to Hunter in the 155 and Wilson was out-pointed by Wallace in the 165 pound class to give Western Maryland their other two points. Captain Hawkins wound up his career by a knockout over Kaplan, Western Maryland, after 15 seconds fighting in the third round.

W. V. U. 5; PITT 2

West Virginia overwhelmed the Pitt team 5 to 2 and earned four technical knockouts in the process. One of the knockouts was not credited, however, coming in the 115-pound exhibition between Puglia, freshman, and McCarrol of Pitt. Captain Leonard Hawkins 175, Freddie Fisher 125, and Bill Neely 135, were the other Mountaineers to dispose of their men via the knockout route. Bob Latham 165, and Lefty Hamilton 145, won clear decisions and Ben Stunkard 155, the only Mountaineer to lose, was shaded by Schriker, Pitt ace. Jimmy Bronson, New York, refereed the matches.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross country is fast assuming major proportions as an inter-collegiate sport at the University. Under the tutelage of Coach "Art" Smith, the Mountaineer harriers have won consistently and as a consequence a world of interest is now being shown in the hitherto little known sport.

This year West Virginia again won the tri-state title by taking the measure of Pitt, Geneva, and Carnegie Tech by decisive scores. In addition to the three tri-state opponents, the Mountaineers met and defeated Navy at Annapolis and lost by one point to the Army at West Point. This match was the only defeat suffered during the season's schedule of five meets.

Five men were awarded letters at the close of the season. They were Brand, Mahanna, Zimmerman, Boley, and Deever, all of whom were the consistent performers in the West Virginia victories. Hill, Price, and Captain Leiphart completed the squad of eight men who ran regularly for the Mountaineers.

In the one and only dual meet scheduled for the 1932 indoor winter track program the strong West Virginia team coached by "Art" Smith met and decisively defeated the University of Pittsburgh 63 to 40.

Two new West Virginia records were created and a third record tied as the Mountaineers captured 8 out of 12 first places and a goodly number of seconds and thirds. Cyril Ruble in his last appearance set a new mark of 12 feet 5 inches in the pole vault and Bill Ford, classy sophomore performer, cleared the bar at 6 feet 3 inches in the high jump to establish the second new record. Gordon Fraser, another sophomore, ran the 70 yard dash in the fast time of 7.2 seconds to tie the previous record.

Captain "Runt" Calloway was high score man in the meet with firsts in the 70 yard low and high hurdles and second place in the high jump. Bill Miller won the indoor hammer throw with a heave of 44 feet 3 inches, just one inch short of the record held by Charley Hill, last year's captain.

Pitt won the sprint relay and dominated the shot-put event with first and second places.

CALLOWAY

One Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America mark, was equalled, two Field House records broken and three equalled, while four West Virginia marks toppled to provide the outstanding features of the assault of more than 200 athletes in the fourth annual Indoor Games on Feb. 13.

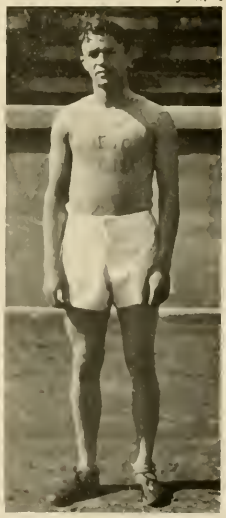
"Runt" Calloway was clocked in 8.6 seconds in the semi-final heat of the 70 yard high hurdles but he placed only third in the finals behind Mears, Ohio Wesleyan and Liberty, Michigan State when he got away to a poor start and then clipped the second hurdle. The slight injury suffered as a result was enough to cause Coach Art Smith to scratch him in the finals of the 70 yard low hurdle event. The time in the finals was 8.8, equalling the Field House record.

The defeat of Kelly, Georgetown, in the 70 yard dash provided one of the upsets of the meet. Both Kelly and Renwick tied the Field House mark of 7.2 seconds in trial heats and Renwick won the finals in the same time.

West Virginia's outstanding achievement was the victory in the four-fifths mile relay. VanVoorhis, Clifford, Deems and Hoblitzell were never headed to finish 15 yards in front of Pitt, the nearest rival. The time was 2.45.5 a new West Virginia mark.

Clark Chamberlain of Michigan clipped one second off the Field House record held jointly by himself and Rekers of Penn State in winning the one-mile run by a great margin. He nearly lapped his competitors, so big was his advantage.

Simpson, W. Va. pole vaulter, set a new W. Va. indoor record with a vault of 12 feet 3 inches, but had to be content with a tie with Leonard, Ohio Wesleyan, for first place honors. Bailey, W. Va. plebe, set a new plebe record in the low hurdles, being clocked in 8.5 seconds. Mazze, Erie Academy High, equalled the Field House high school record in the 70 yard dash with a time of 7.4 seconds.



FRASER

Pitt all but swept the shot put, Valenti and Luch taking first and second honors, while Howard Spencer, Geneva's dusky high jumper, only got to six feet, three inches, in the running high jump, over two inches shy of his own Field House record set last year.

In the 1000 yard senior Allegheny Mountain Association championship run, the battle was between Beetham, former Ohio State star, running unattached, and Mickey Brand, former Mountaineer star. Beetham won in a stirring finish in the record time of 2:21.5, nearly six seconds faster than the old record which has stood for nine years.

Michigan took first place honors in the special event run between Penn State, Princeton, Michigan State, and Michigan. West Virginia won the college open sprint relay in 1:16.3 seconds with Ohio Wesleyan second and the University of Pittsburgh, third.

The annual Indoor Games has grown to be one of the most popular events on the winter card as the class of competition each year promises record breaking marks. This year the Field House was packed to capacity to witness the finals run off in the evening of the all-day program.

Intramural Department

HARRY L. SAMUEL
Director

Intra-mural sports were first brought to our campus in 1928. Heretofore, there was practically no development along this line of activity. The Inter-fraternity council sponsored an inexpensive program of competitive athletics which was limited to fraternity men. At the present time we have a well developed Intra-mural Department. The growth of this phase of campus life has been very progressive and even greater progress can be seen in the coming years.

The chief purpose of this Department is to enable all men students, fraternity as well as non-fraternity, to take part in one or more of the various sports offered by the well-rounded year's program. Over nine hundred men took part in one or more of the seasonal games last year. Thus far this year, that number has already been surpassed.

Mr. Harry L. Samuel, Director of the Intra-mural Department since its inception, and his competent staff, have developed this branch of the University's activities to a high level as compared with many schools in the United States. This aspect of college life is gradually becoming a necessity in the minds of most of the leading educators in this country.

DEEP END

MUDDY COLA

FRATERNITY MEETINGS

ALPHA GAMMA RHO

The A. G. R's. Meeting is called to order after all plows and harrows are cleared out of the front room. All of the brothers quit planting corn in the front yard, hang up their overalls on the doorstep and after a strong bellow by Brother Hawkins, the business begins. Brother Varner sticks his head out of the window and gives a loud hog call which summons the rest of the brothers from the A. G. Farm. Then Brother Beull Clark, pilot of the Farm revealed a few of his discoveries along the line of manure growing, giving several practical demonstrations by slinging a little, at which all of the brothers galloped outside, and donned their overalls. Order having been restored by liberal use of pitchforks. Brother Welch brought to the minds of the members the annual Hallowe'en Barn Brawl. Bro. Arnold was assigned to cow duty during the next few months, since his ability as a hiker was amply proven while member of the Mountaineer Week team. Bro. Webb of popgun fame was unanimously elected scarecrow for the front yard corn patch. By this time the fragrance of Bro. Clark's manure was such that immediate adjournment was necessary.

BETA THETA PI

The boys huddled and did the "Charleston" while Brother John Davis strummed softly on his ukelele "Long Live Beta Theta Pi." Brother Charles Watkins gave three taps on the gavel, very softly, and the boys seem interested. Old business was in order and someone made a dirty crack about Brother ? Levis and New Business was hastily put in order. Brother Dynie Davis gained the floor and made a motion that all brothers be compelled to buy "Moonshine." However, there was quite an argument over this, as Brother Waddel insisted that they get bonded stuff. Someone stood up and moved that they get in touch with immigration officers and have them deport Pledge Carter immediately. Everybody stamped their feet—and roared their approval. Brother Hale Watkins got up and painfully reminded the brothers that they needed color which they lacked since the departure of "Spig" Bycott and Nick Latham. Here one of the brothers got up and requested a board bill be sent to Brother Bycott but this was quickly hushed. Brother Hale got to his feet after a great struggle and stated that he thought they should pledge George Blue. Some of the brothers dissented but some of the more thrifty ones pointed out the fact that they might get a reduction in the cleaning of their muddy shoes. This caused an awful argument. The question was finally tabled and the meeting was adjourned so that Brother John Waddel could go about his (regular duties) at the Chi Omega House.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The house was in a stupor. Brother Dotson's supply of Richwood ipecack had suddenly disappeared from his room and the chapter was up in arms about the matter. It was strongly suspected that Neighbor Will Sortet had made off with the prized juice and a call for volunteers was issued to storm the K. A. stronghold. After a lengthy debate it was decided that Leo would have to make a hurried trip to Ritchie for another barrel so that the usual weekly meeting could be held under normal circumstances. Dotson started on his journey, but got his signals mixed at the foot of the hill and fell up the Chi O front steps and was taken in with motherly care.

Brother Plaster called for an impromptu meeting in which those present voted thanks to Brothers Carden and Ragland for their championship play in the bridge tournament saying that it was a great accomplishment since the athletic stock was on the decline. Big Sue gratefully acknowledged this recognition and told at length about his conversation with the Culbertsons last summer until Brother Pinky Smith fell out of his chair in a dead sleep. Carden was extremely annoyed at this social fo paw and refused to continue, the speech coming to an end just three hours and twenty minutes after its beginning. The chapter was elated and put on a stag dance with Brother Barnett's boys on the horns. Carden felt like a wallflower since none of the Brothers would dance with him and went off in a huff for the Sigma Nu house, highly enraged. "I'll go where the boys really have good manners," he shouted. Everybody gave him a good old long-drawn out Bronx cheer and "on with the party." As soon as he left they all went over to the hill above the Woman's hall to take up the nightly watch.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Brother Geppart drove his car through the back of the new garage to attract attention since he couldn't attract it any other way. At the sound of the crash all the other brothers hid their whiskey expecting a police raid, but all got it out immediately to drink to Sutton's success. Brother Hoult managed to get six or eight men for a meeting but most of them had business in Star City and couldn't stay long. Right in the middle of the meeting there was an awful racket outside the door. Brother Chaplin had forgotten the password, but insisted that he be admitted to the session. Since he was as much plastered as any of the others a favorable vote was cast and Eud was granted permission to come in. He got to talking out of turn about the new batch of beer Ben had set and Brother Sutton hit him with a chair. Brother Sutton was fined $5 for injuring the chapter's benefactor, since here had been a motion to the effect that the Delt sign be moved to Westover because most of the Brothers had been dividing their time between the two places. A style show next took the interest of the group. Brother Kaiser was the first mannequin and sauntered in with an alluring creation direct from U. Ave. Most of the Brothers got so flustered and worked-up that it was impossible to go on with the meeting and all piled in cars and headed for Pittsburgh and the Academy.

KAPPA ALPHA

Brother Schweitzer, half stewed as usual, rushed in and jumped on the card table. It fell on Brother Sortet's dainty toe and the two bulls got to bucking each other all over the front room. Hearing the commotion, Brother Schwartzwalder rushed down the steps and took charge of the situation with a toe hold on Schweitzer and a scissors on the big blond. The rest of the members clapped their hands in glee and tried to lend moral and vocal support with a series of yells, but couldn't get their syllables in proper conjunction and it sounded like New York's foreign element on the 4th of July. Brother Martin went outside for a few minutes and returned with a railing off the Sigma Chi porch and proceeded to end the trouble in quick order.

Brothers Smoot poured oil on the troubled waters and called for a meeting. No meeting could be official without Brother Calloway and so a hurried call was sent to his lounging room at 506 N. High street, but the one and only "Runt" said he was busily engaged and that the brothers would have to get along once without him. At this there was pronounced cheering and waving of pennants and everyone was in a better mood. Brother Powers gave a delightful talk on the "Various Varieties of Pansys Grown in Our Back Yard" which was well received by all. In the midst of this intellectual situation the front door flew off its hinges and in rushed the three S's from Huntington, covered with blood and grime. They had tried to break in the Delt meeting, but were successfully repulsed by Verne Scott and Roger Scott, the Delt's classy battlers. Brother Edmundson let out one of his silly high school whistle-laughs and was promptly throttled. This made Schweitzer mad because he liked Dick and he started a free-for-all which brought the session to an end.

SIGMA NU

The weekly snake party was about to begin. Most of the Brothers were having difficulty seeing one another, but managed to stumble through the entrance. Brother Joe Burdette was in the middle of his steamboat act, squawking around until Brother Miller took the wind out of his sails with a well-directed hammer throw to Burdette's mid-section. Brother Jack Walker and Brother Howard Fleming nearly came to blows arguing over which one was the best-mannered at dances, but both finally decided that they were pretty smooth and that Brother Ulrich really needed the jacking-up on his Emily Post. Ulrich was so perturbed that he immediately went into one of his lousy clog dance affairs and was thrown out the window where he belonged. Brother Snyder, his heart always full of Sigma Nu and his belly full of sour grapes, made a motion that the chapter make arrangements with the city fire department to blow the whistle every Tuesday evening at seven o'clock so that the Brothers in surrounding beer joints would know what day of the week it was and would stagger home to meetings.

Heza-Wonder-Heza-Scream Doyle got up and started to review his career at the University telling the Brothers how to get the women all hog-tied and straight-jacketed. Brother Wolfe stood it as long as possible and then shot Johnny in the head. Whereupon, the Brothers adjourned to celebrate.

WE HAVE been accustomed to press a button and have electricity at any time for any purpose. The ease with which it is obtained, anywhere in Monongahela territory, tends to push into the background the efforts necessary to keep this valuable servant at your beck and call.

The energies of many must be directed to maintaining electricity every hour of every day, whether you use it or not. We must supply energy without any previous demand from you. The way we perform this task determines the value of the service on which you depend.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Not having anything better to do than meet, the boys all congregated in the meeting hall. A weekly fight takes place to decide who will preside in the speaker's chair and everyone joins in willingly. After several hours of vicious scratching and pinching, Brother Ike Lewis is still left standing, because his skin was thicker than most of the others. By this time some of the other brothers are recovering and Ike orders "Scuttlebut" Zirbs to open a window and let some pure air in. This does very little good and Lewis calls for the meeting to resume in the coal bin in the cellar where it is more conducive to a proper Sig Ep gathering. Grinning broadly, he then picks up a shovel and raps Brother Teagarden over the head for order. Brother Lewis broke the good news that he might be back next year to help with rushing duties and to arrange dates for the more backward Brothers. He said he knew of three or four girls who might be tricked into dinner dates some time, but he didn't know when. At this outburst a great commotion took place and he was applauded with great gusto. Brother Zirbs then rose and pleaded with the others to improve the social status by giving more dances and fewer beer parties. Brother Hiehle bent a perfectly good poker over Zirbs' head and the meeting broke up in a free-for-all with lumps of coal sailing in all directions.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Basketball was the main topic for discussion as Mountaineer Cubbon rapped for order. He lamented the fact that the Delts were stealing the show in the person of Leland Brown and urged that everyone show a marked improvement in attitude and take their work more seriously. These remarks fell heavily on but a few Brothers, since most of them were too busily engaged at Ernie's playing baffle ball to attend meeting. There was profound snoring in the back of the room which disturbed the Pi K. A. leader no end and he gently bounced a vase off Brother Klug's nose in order to remedy the situation. Klug, highly indignant, threw it back and there ensued a game of "toss the vase;" neither of the two were very handy at passing anything since they had had very little experience along those lines and Cubbon, thinking he was on the court, dropped the missle and spent the next hour crying. Brother Klug came to the front at this time and told the Brothers about Indiana basketball in an endeavor to stir up a little enthusiasm for next winter, but someone called him a "hollering hoosier" and he got mad. He then proceeded to give West Virginians hell for wearing such short hair, claiming that long hair was the rage in the mid?west. Everyone urged him to return to Indiana permanently and he left to pack his suitcase. Some discussion arose about growing grass in the front yard, but since none of them knew anything about grass or anything else it was finally decided to invite the A. G. R's over for Wednesday dinner and to get some first hand advice on the best fertilizer for that particular soil. The meeting adjourned and all left except Cubbon who was still bawling about the broken vase.

SIGMA CHI

The brothers assemble on the front porch. "Well, what are we going to do now," asked Bro. "Short Growth" Hornor, the big-shot (3 Quarts) Politician. "Blower White has gone Kappaward with the keys to the pow-wow room." With no meeting in sight, the brothers trickle off and gather at an upstairs window where a half hour is spent waiting for some unsuspecting Alpha Phi. Not having any luck in that direction, Bro. Morris moves that Bro. White's and Bro. Meredith's trunks be removed from the house to make way for more beer bottles; seeing as they live at the Kappa domicile, their dirty socks should also deodorize there. Motion overruled as White's whole pair of pajamas has not come back from the laundry yet. Then Bro. Neff rushes in and says that Meredith is in jail for trying to wreck the Morgan. He was showing how he used to play drop-the-handkerchief at Marshall. A member of the local coppers had never heard of the great L. H. C. P. of Fi Batar and had incarcerated him in the village hoosegow. After bailing him out, the brothers start back for the old fraternity wigwam, but never get there. On seeing a generous display of limb in front of the Met, Bro. Sonderman moves that the meeting be held in the Balcony. After a half hour of lousy wracks from Bros. Moore and Blimp McLane, the meeting was adjourned on request of the manager and the riot squad. Upon motion of Bro. Fred Ford backed up by Haddock, the St. Joe flash, they moved to Point Marion and points down University Ave.

To be more constructive we will suggest that the Alpha Delta Pi's need a new location, Theta Upsilon need more girls, the Pi Phi's more dates and less cattyness, the Kappa's to get off their high-horse and be their common selves, the Chi Omega's need more porch swings, etc., the Phi Mu's need a few big campus activity men to look after their night work, the Delta Gamma's need a few beauties, the Gamma Phi Beta's need more sisters from Northwestern, the Alpha Phi's need time.

We have been waiting four years for this chance. Lack of space and the restraining hand of Dear Editor are the only discordant notes.

A group of indignants held a meeting when the results of the so-called Beauty Contest were announced, and swore violently. After drawing up a testiment of sanity, they proceeded to name: Margaret Straley, Nancy Hogg, Jessie Fortney, Gertrude South, Betty Bayliss, Mary Lou Carney, Mildred Fetty.

Ed Taylor and Mary Porter Carper call their Ford "True Love", because true love never runs smooth.

We wonder what percentage Beverly Lowe and Jessie Fortney got from their endorsements. We wish we were campus celebrities!

The girls had a contest. They nominated Bob Hamilton, Banks Shepard, Stan Power, Buck McClaugherty, John Bruce Douglas, June Griffith, Fred Ford, and Bob Kopp.

We'd suggest Charley Van Voorhis and Frank Kreglow for the Best Dressed, too, but we're afraid that they might muss each other up, fighting over the honor.

And along that same line — will we ever forget those good old election scandals of the past? Sleepy Glenn's heroic action when the lights went out in Oglebay Hall . . . The feast of Athenaeum the fishes at Cheat Lake received . . . Counterfeit activity books . . . etc., etc.

"Humph! What shall I do about this, Major?"

"That's easy", said the Major. "Give it to me!"

THE LIGHTED TORCH

(West Virginia University and Campus)

Oh, would I had a golden lyre
Whose lyric strings would never tire
Of sounding forth your lasting praise,
I would through generations raise
Your name, Fair West Virginia!
The echo too, would follow after
Silvery as Monongahela's Laughter.
On guard, still stands your ancient cloak,
I would its secrets, now unlock.
It saw the firm foundation laid
By men, calm, sturdy, unafraid
Who set this Torch of Truth alight
To lead mankind throughout the night
Of cruel ignorance and fears
Down through the pageantry of years.
Your ancient trees, benign and still
Point to the glory of the Hill;
While far, arrayed in royal blue
Your mountain fastnesses guard too.
Within your walls, wise men and sages
Tell forth the stately tales of ages.
Here Youth in long procession pass,
A goodly group, both lad and lass,
Through Science, Martin and Woodburn Halls,
Whose mellowed brick and ivied walls
Are symbol of man's intellect
Who from the lasting brick erect
The patterned plan, to here decree
That "Mountaineers are always free,"
Built thus for all the common good,
United in one brotherhood,
We sing your praise!
He who walks here must feel the spell
Of Nature's Beauty, whose chorus swells
To mighty volume, which to me
Is proof of an Eternity.
For all the loveliness undimmed
At dawn, in bird-song daily hymned
Unites with laughter of the water
To mock the lovely star-born daughter
By murmuring, "Monongahela,"
She (runs the legend) could not save
Her Indian lover from watery grave.
While still the gentle weeping willow
Murmurs as breezes stir the willow
"Monongahela, Monongahela."
Oh Mountaineers be always true
To old tradition and to new
Linking with them true Liberty
The law which can alone, make free.
Hold high, this lighted Torch of Truth
That generations of stalwart Youth
May drink the wisdom of the sages
As we, throughout the future ages!

Elizabeth Davis Richards.

ON KISSING

I love the ones that do
I hate the ones that don't,
I despise the ones that say they will
And then they say they won't.
But the ones that I love best
(And I know you'll say I'm right)
Are the ones that say they shouldn't,
But you know damn well they might.

Have you ever noticed Mildred Fetty when she smiles? Her eyes and her mouth go up at the corners, and she looks like nothing in the world so much as a pleased kitten.

Now that Bob Kopp and June Griffith are out of the class of unattainables, that leaves Robb Cramer, Bud Summerfield, and Dave Sutton to hold the exalted position as S. P. of all the little H. A. (hopelessly aspiring) co-eds on the campus.

For the comic strip: Bill Sydnor at a dance, holding Elenore Coleman out at arm's length, so he can see her.

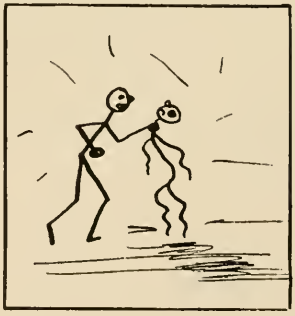
Howe Stidger was visiting a graded school while still in military uniform. "Hey!" hissed one of the small fry, in a stage whisper, "State Cop!" "State cop, hell!" growled Jack Shipman. "That's a Boy Scout!"

May we gripe: these West Virginia hills — beautiful hills — may be majestic and all that, but they surely do play hell with the ankles of our lovely co-eds.

At the rate some of these freshmen have been polishing up that good old line, one would think they were trying to equal Don Juans Shipley and Parriott.

Say prunes.

Hell, no! Say apples. That kind of kiss went out of style ages ago!



Howard Fleming: "Oh, pardon me — I thought you were someone else."

Freshman girl: "Oh, I have just met Lock Johnson, and I think he is adorable! Don't you think he is adorable?"

Brother Delt: "Yeah, he's a fine boy — but his curling iron always interferes with the radio!!"

Mary Lib Steger (overheard at the military parade): "Why does that man keep yelling 'What's Left?' ?"

One evening
A bright young lad
Called upon
A pretty miss.
He told her
About all the
Games he'd won;
He told her
All about the
Things he'd done.

A bright young lad called upon
Called upon
A pretty miss
One evening.

Somebody: Did you hear them fire the cannon to salute the General?

Ed Storck: Was that the cannon? I thought it was just Schweitzer and Sortet wrestling again!

A piercing shriek echoed from the bathroom and sent chills up and down everyone's spin. They rushed in and found Ella on the floor in a huddled heap. They lifted her onto the bed, and in a few minutes, haggard with a terrified look in her eyes, she came to.

"Ella," cried her mother, "what happened?"

"Oh, mother! It was awful. I stepped into the bathroom and there I saw——"

"Yes?" Everyone strained forward white as sheets. "You saw——?"

"Pink tooth brush," she hissed in a horrified whisper, and fell back in a faint.

Math. Prof.—"Listen here, young man, are you the professor of this class?"

Frosh.—"No, sir. I am not."

Math. Prof.—"Then don't talk like an idiot."

She's young and pure and innocent,
And she knows naught of men;
She never drinks, nor smokes, nor swears—
And she is almost ten!

King—Bring in a girl.
Vassel—Very good, sir.
King—Not necessarily.

Dad at fraternity house door: "Does Channell live here?"
"Sure, bring him in."

Delt: "Move over closer to me."
Tri Delt: "Didn't I tell you I was a lady?"
Delt: "I don't care what you were."

Lives of great men oft remind us,
We can make our lives sublime.
Asking foolish questions,
Wasting recitation time.

Kissing a girl is like emptying a bottle of olives — if you get one the rest come easily.

"Goodness, George, this is not our baby! This is the wrong carriage."
"Shut up! It's a better carriage."

Customer: "Package of Murads, please."
Clerk: "Nothing wrong I hope, sir."

Sweet Thing: "I'm going to marry an engineer and a gentleman."
He: "Like h——, that's bigamy."

Surgeon:: "Go get the name of the accident victim so we can inform his mother."
Attendant (three minutes later): "He says his mother knows his name."

Constable:: "Pardon, Miss, but there ain't no swimmin' allowed in this lake."
Fair Maiden: "Why didn't you tell me before I undressed?"
Constable: "There ain't any law against undressing."

He—Do you know that boy over there?
She—Know him? Why I slept with him for 3 months.
He—What?
She—You see — we had Economics together.

First Penn'a.: "Where are you going my pretty maid?"
Second Ditto: "I'm going to York."
First Penn'a.: "Hold everything, I'm going with you."

Beta: "The first time you contradict me I'm going to kiss you."
Kappa: "You are not."

When better girls are made they won't be half so interesting.

The modern wall flower is the girl who dances all the time.

Tree—"Have one on me."
Dog—"No thanks, I just had one on the house."

"Do you like short skirts, Butch?"
"Naw, dey git lipstick on me shoit when I dance wit 'em."

Diner—"Where's the menu?"
Waitress—"Down the hall, three doors to the left."

He—"Unmarried?"
She—"Yes, twice."

Pi—"And did you call for help when he kissed you in the dark?"
Phi—"Silly! He didn't need any help."

First Drunk—"Do you know Brown?"
Second Fraternity Man—"No, what's his name?"
First—"Who?"

"This is the skull of a man who was shipwrecked for two years on a desert island."
"How did he die?"
"He wore himself out tearing down the distress signals they put up."

Kappa—"One of your guests has insulted me!"
Delt.—"What? Only one? Someone has cut the likker."

"Hey, Betty says she's sore at you because you tore her stocking."
"Her stocking?"

And that's the end of that!
